Roll Call of Commissioners: Commissioners Andersen, Barbosa and Walker were all present. Commissioner Langford participated via conference call. Commissioner Louwers, absent excused

Opening Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance

Recognitions: Citizen Life Saver, Autumn Earle & her dog NOAA

A citizen life saver award was presented to Autumn Earle and her dog NOAA as dog started barking to alert his owner that something was happening outside. When Autumn looked outside she saw a red glow and smoke coming from the neighbor's house. She was able to notify the neighbors and call 911 and everyone made it out safely. Chief Comer presented the award to both Autumn and NOAA the dog. The homeowner expressed his gratitude to Autumn, NOAA and the Iona Fire District for their prompt response and compassion and said they went above and beyond to make sure his family were comfortable and had everything they needed after the fire was out.

Chief's Report: The Chief's report is as presented but I would like to add that Sarah Lavicka, executive assistant has added the addition hyperlinks to the agenda in order to ease the use of the documents presented.

Commissioner Walker asked about the fire training /spec ops tanker training to which Division Chief Wisdom responded that it consisted of industry experts and took place at Bonita, they had static displays as well as a classroom portion and some basic entry and stabilization of vehicles. Commissioner Walker also asked about the hazmat training and Div. Chief Wisdom said that the city of Fort Myers each month sends hazmat techs to drill with regional teams as that's who we'd be working with if there was a need. There was some further discussion regarding other training and then a motion to approve the Chief's report was made by Commissioner Andersen with a second by Commissioner BarbosaMotion carried

Attorney's Report: Attorney Pringle mentioned that, in his opinion, the Strategic plan is a very useful document and a plan that the district can use in its daily operations and a tool that can be used for decision making.

DVP's Reports: Nothing to report
